VINEYARDS

SPRING 2021

Hi everyone, hope all is well with you and your families. We're enjoying a beautiful spring and are feeling hopeful about what this year holds in store for all of us. We're also grateful for the good things happening now:

IN THE CELLAR

SEEING THE WORLD THROUGH ROSÉ-COLORED (WINE)GLASSES:

After the positive response to our first Rosé bottling last year, we tripled down to create three Rosés in 2020: Rosé of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc, all using the traditional French method known as saignée. These wines are made by siphoning off some of the juice after it's been in contact with the skins, resulting in the beautiful pink hue and a delicious variation on the varietal. These were bottled in February and released March 1, as a trio and for individual sale.

THE NEW LINEUP: In addition to the 2020 Rosés, our spring releases include the 2017 red wines and 2019 Sauvignon Blanc (see next page).

LOOKING FORWARD: We recently tasted through the 2019's and 2020's with our winemaker Kristof and his wife, Jennifer. The 2019's are shaping up beautifully and will be bottled in July. The 2020's are still young, but we are pleased with how they are progressing.

IN THE VINEYARD

READY, SET, GO! The vineyard is pruned and mowed, and will be disked, and the mustard came back this year with a vengeance amongst the cover crop, which made for a beautiful display of scenery.

AROUND THE ESTATE

A LITTLE HELP FOR OUR FRIENDS: After the holidays, we made donations to three local charities that really made a difference behind the scenes during the wildfires last year, helping fight the fires and rescuing and feeding livestock and other animals during and after the fires.

OUR NEW SCIENCE EXPERIMENT: We've launched a new wine vinegar project. It's critical to keep the vinegar starter away from wine (or you'll end up with way more vinegar than you planned for), so it's located across the vineyard. The exterior is being rocked with field stone from our property. We currently have two barrels of red wine vinegar in the works.

MOST IMPORTANTLY, WE'RE OPEN!

We are pleased to be open and hosting visitors again! Tastings are currently available only outside, but with the mustard showing off among the vines right now, our patio is a gorgeous place to sit back, relax and enjoy the wine. Hope to see you here soon.
